

Class Project: Writing A Restaurant Review

The sinú bonga.

Last month, my brother, sister-in-law, niece and I tried Colombia's new restaurant. As for the food, it is a three-star restaurant. The fried plantains and buttermilk were fresh. We ate a charcoal tip of anca. The meat was tender, juicy and the sauce gave it a delicious flavor. My niece enjoyed the cheese carimañolas and the corozo juice. For dessert we had tamarind volcano in condensed milk, which was wonderful. The atmosphere was formidable since the concept of the place is instrumental Colombian music; I would just say that the volume was a little high. The tables were clean and separated, there was privacy. The service was excellent! Our dinner cost $200 and we will come back whenever we can

Dear teacher,

Please check my homework.

The restaurant, Kebab House, is located in the city Djal in Kyrgyzstan. My friend and I often visited this restaurant when I lived in Kyrgyzstan. There are many types of kebab. Vegetables and fruit salads and beverages, on the menu I liked vegetable kebab. The peculiarity of the kebab is that the meat and vegetables are baked together. It was very delicious. I was interested in how they do it. My friend liked fish kebab. The restaurant had a modern design with national touches. It was wonderful. The staff was friendly and welcoming. The prices were high.

Sincerely

Dear teacher,

Please see below my paragraph for the assignment:

Last weekend, my daughter and I went to Outback Steakhouse at 371 Gellert Blvd, Daly City, CA. She ordered the ribeye and I ordered the filet mignon. We got chicken wings as an appetizer. We sat at the bar because it was faster than getting a table. We also ordered drinks. I ordered a coca-cola and my daughter ordered a margarita. The food was delicious. The atmosphere was lively. We could also watch Sports on TV. The service was excellent! The bill was reasonably priced. The total was around $100.00.I would give them a 4 star.

Sincerely,

- My family and I went to Boracay Garden & Grill restaurant In South San Francisco . This was my second time visiting that Philippine restaurant. The meal in this restaurant is one of the best Filipino foods that I've tried to eat. For an appetizer, we had Lumpiang Shanghai, and Crispy Calamares. They were both delicious. The salad was a very big plate and it was very good. The food that I ordered, we called it Bangus sisig, was very delicious. My mom had a Grilled Salmon and it was perfect. We had halo-halo for dessert, and for drinks, I ordered a fresh mango shake. We had an awesome evening. The service was quite slow and the prices were high. Our dinner was almost $100.

Dear Mrs. Cai,

Please see my homework below

A review of the restaurant Round Table Pizza.

Round Table Pizza is located on Chestnut Ave, in South San Francisco. My friend and I went there last Saturday. They have different types of pizza on the menu. We ordered some Thin Crust Pizza and some Greek salad. The pizza was delicious and we enjoyed the food. The salad was good enough, but the portion was a little too small . The service was fast and the service people were friendly and the prices were reasonable, so we were very pleased by our visit.

Dear Mrs. Cai,

Last month, my wife, her sister and I went to a restaurant called Seafood Peddler in Sausalito.

The seafood in this restaurant was wonderful.

For an appetizer, we had New England Clam Chowder.

This soup was very tasty, simply divine.

Then, I had Caesar salad with fresh dungeness crab meat .My wife and her sister had a Mixed Grill with fish, post-balsamic glaze, lemon, white wine, and capers sauce.

Both were delicious.

For dessert, we ordered Warm ChocolateWalnut Brownie Sundae with vanilla bean gelato, whipped cream and chocolate sauce.

The dessert was excellent.

The food was cooked to perfection.

The service was amazing.

Our waiter was very helpful. He was able to speak several languages.

In addition, there was a beautiful view of the bay and yachts from the window.

Our dinner was $160.It was not cheap but it was worth trying.

P.S.

I prefer homemade foods. They are less expensive ,and by the way, my wife is a fabulous cook.

Restaurants are sometimes just for new experiments.

Sincerely,

My husband and I like going to a restaurant located in Half Moon Bay, California. The name of the restaurant is Miramar Beach. It is on the edge of the beach, so we can appreciate the beauty of the sea, and the sound of the waves while enjoying food. Last time, we ordered several dishes including appetizers, drinks, and desserts. There are many different dishes to choose from on the menu. The service was excellent. On weekend afternoons, there are musical instruments playing. It is a very nice restaurant and I totally recommend it.

Dear Ms. Cai

I want to share with you my favorite restaurant. I have gone to various restaurants and I have tried so many different foods, like Chinese, Philippines, Hondureña, and Mexican foods. But the best that I have tasted is Olive Garden. It is an Italian restaurant that serves endless breadsticks and salad, or if you do not want salad you can choose from different types of delicious soups. So, what I usually do, when I go to Olive Garden with my big family, is to order one salad, and everyone else gets soups. And what I usually buy and enjoy, is my favorite dish, the Shrimp and Chicken Carbonara.

The restaurant is expensive with each plate reaching between 13-19 dollars. That is why my family and I do not go there often, but when we do, we enjoy it.

You must come with me, one day, I'll invite you.

Sincerely,

Gabriella Chavez
